Complaint:

The formal complaint from Georgia State University alleged that Sigma Nu Fraternity, Inc. hosted a party off campus where alcohol was distributed from a common source container with no one checking identification to verify that individuals receiving alcohol were of legal drinking age. Also, members of the Sigma Nu Fraternity allegedly shuttled students to and from campus to the off campus party.

The alleged violations of Georgia State University's Student Code of Conduct Section II General Conduct Policies and Procedures included:

III. General Conduct Policies and Procedures

A. Prohibited General Conduct

1. Violation of the Student Code of Conduct and any Administrative or University policies rules or regulations.
5. Verbally threatening physically abusing, or threatening physical abuse, intimidation, coercion and/or conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of self, other students, other members of the University community or campus visitors.
9. Public intoxication or use, possession, consumption, distribution or sale of alcoholic beverages except as expressly permitted by the University's Alcohol Policy (see Alcohol Policy).

Results:

The Student Judicial Board held a disciplinary hearing on Friday, December 13, 2012. Based on the information and evidence presented at the judicial hearing, the Student Judicial Board found the Eta Gamma Chapter of Sigma Nu Fraternity, Inc. not responsible for the violations listed above. The Dean of Students upheld the findings of the Student Judicial Board.
