Complaint:

The formal complaint from Georgia State University alleged that Sigma Nu Fraternity, Inc. rented a beach house in Gulf Shores, AL. The owner reported damage to the property and there was a keg present with the Sigma Nu logo.

The alleged violations of Georgia State University's Student Code of Conduct Section II General Conduct Policies and Procedures included:

II. General Conduct Policies and Procedures

A. Prohibited General Conduct

1. Violation of the Student Code of Conduct and any Administrative or University polices, rules or regulations.
7. Attempted or actual theft of and/or damage to property belonging to the University, any member of the University community or others.
10. Public intoxication or use, possession, consumption, distribution or sale of alcoholic beverages except as expressly permitted by the University's Alcohol Policy (see Alcohol Policy).

Results:

The Student Judicial Board held a disciplinary hearing on Friday, October 14, 2016. Based on the information and evidence presented at the judicial hearing, the Student Judicial Board found the Eta Gamma Chapter of Sigma Nu Fraternity, Inc. not responsible for the violations listed above. The Dean of Students upheld the findings of the Student Judicial Board.
